REFERENCE: Letter of Good Standing

COMMENTS: Per H. R. 218: the Law Enforcement Safety Act of 2004 sec. 3. Exemption of Qualified Retired Law Enforcement Officers From State Laws Prohibiting the Carrying of Concealed Firearms.

In order for this application to be complete, a Letter of Good Standing from the Agency the Officer retired from, MUST accompany this form. The letter must be on an official Departmental letterhead and signed by an Officer in the Command Staff Unit. The letter must state, by using the following information, that the retiree is a “qualified retired Law Enforcement Officer”.

The term "qualified retired law enforcement officer" is defined as an individual who:

- (1) has retired in good standing from your agency as a law enforcement officer for an aggregate of fifteen (15) years or more for reasons other than mental instability,
- (2) OR retired from such an agency due to a service-connected disability after completing any applicable probationary period of such service; AND
- (3) was authorized by law to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution or the incarceration of any person for any violation of law;
- (4) had statutory powers of arrest;
- (5) has a non-forfeitable right to benefits under the retirement plan of the agency for which he/she was employed.

Please make sure to include the dates of employment.
